Village Taxes Increase

CROSSFIELD — At the last meeting of the council of the village of Crossfield the rate of taxation for 1953 was set at 50 mills, 20 mills for municipal purposes, 27 mills to meet the requisition from the Calgary School Division and 3 mills for the Hospital District. This is an increase of 8 mills over last year, 5 mills added to the municipal rate, 4 mills on the school rate and a reduction of one mill for the hospital district.

The council, of course, have no control over the school rate, this being set to meet the requisition made on the village by the school division. The big jump in the municipal rate was necessary to take care of the deficiencies from previous years, the council finding itself in financial difficulties through the purchase of the grader last year. It had been intended to spread this purchase over a short period of time but circumstances made it to be a cash deal, part of which must be recovered this year.

It must also be borne in mind that a fire engine was purchased without any addition to the taxes, mostly be use of all the reserve fund and some from the surplus, this being done in trying to keep the taxes down in order to qualify for a grant under the Municipal Assistance Act. Keeping taxes down in this age of expanding services and higher costs just cannot be done and because ours were kept down for two or three years we now have a big jump all at one time.

It is doubly unfortunate that this rise should come just as the first frontage tax comes into effect thus making the overall increase quite substantial. However, these two items should not be confused and the whole counted as an increase in taxes. Frontage tax is not actually a tax in the sense that most people think of taxes, it simply means that we are getting a water and sewer system installed on the time payment plan. No town of any size could raise the money for this if it had to be paid for in cash, but by spreading the payment over 20 years it can be done just as a lot of other items are bought on the same plan.

The bids on the tenders for this project are to be considered soon and it is hoped that a start will be made very shortly. Among the things to be considered are 60 services the contractor will lay to the property line during the laying of the mains.

This means that 60 people can have their lines laid to the property line while the streets are torn up, thus saving themselves a

Explains Higher Cost Of Canadian Cars

OTTAWA — Don Brown (L. Essex West), today explained to the Commons why a Canadian-built car is more expensive than an American one of the same make. Speaking in the trade debate, the member for one of Canada's car-building centres said a Canadian four-door sedan in the low-price field costs about 7450 more than a similar American model.

Factory list price for the Canadian car is $1,836, for the American $1,609. For this car, a Canadian pays $145 in sales tax and $217 in excise tax, making a total of $2,198. The American pays no sales tax and $134 in excise tax, a total of $1,743.

Parking Space Lack Hurts Property Values

EDMONTON — The town planner's department forecasts a decline in property values in the centre of Edmonton unless more parking is provided. The area provides more than 16 per cent of the city's municipal and school taxes. The report, presented to city council Monday night, said a survey showed the area contained 10,014 car-parking spaces, 5,896 of them at curbs. Despite this number, the report claimed that a shortage of 4,443 stalls was indicated in 19 blocks.

Albertans Die Accidentally

EDMONTON (CP) — Two accidental deaths were reported Friday by Alberta police.

Rodney Donovan, 12 of Fort Assiniboine, was drowned Thursday night when he fell through the ice on the Athabasca river. Raoul Paradis of Ashmont died in a truck accident.

The boy was crossing the river with his 17-year old brother, Francis, when they blundered through. The older boy caught a thrown rope and was pulled to safety but his brother disappeared.

Paradis was riding in a truck which failed to make a turn Thursday night near the village of Ashmont, about 80 miles northeast of Edmonton. Police said the driver was Clarence McConnell, also of Ashmont.

How long does an oil well last?

The average well goes dry in 20 to 30 years. To keep your car rolling and your home warm, a new well must be found to take its place. That's why the search for oil never ends; why Imperial, for instance, spent almost $50 millions to find and develop new oil in western Canada last year.

Oil has become one of Canada's important industries. How many of these questions about it can you answer?

Which of the following contain petroleum?
lipstick? binder? printer's ink? insect spray?

Oil is a part of all the products named and of hundreds of others which contribute to our everyday living.

In 1946 Canada produced less than 10% of the oil she used. How much of her needs does she produce now?
18%? 40%? 55%?

About 40% — and we use twice as much as in 1946. Today's production would meet 80% of the demand at that time.

How many service stations would you say Imperial operates across Canada?
19,500? 10,000? 0?

None. Approximately 10,000 stations carry the Imperial Esso sign, but they are operated by independent dealers, each in business for himself.

To what amount, would you say, have the people of Alberta benefited through oil industry payments to the provincial government for royalties, leases and bonuses?
$25 millions? $175 millions? $83 millions?

Since the discovery of Leduc in 1947, oil royalty, lease and bonus payments to the government total more than $175 millions.

Opinion surveys show that most Canadians believe a business is entitled to a profit of 15¢ on a dollar of revenue. Last year Imperial earned?
71¢? 11¢? 19¢?

In 1952 Imperial earned a profit of 71¢ of each dollar received. Of this, 4¢ was paid to shareholders; the remaining 31¢ was used to replace worn-out equipment and to make sure we can supply your future oil needs.

This was some time ago: one year summer when my sister and I were girls. So it was one day my sister's boy friend came over and they were both leaving to attend a sports day being held in another town and my sister told me she wouldn't be present at our home town to watch a baseball practice as we previously planned. With this in mind, my brother and I went ourselves. After watching the game for awhile I decided to go around the other side. As I was almost settled to watch again I noticed my sister standing in front a little ways, so I walked on quietly behind her and pulled her hat over her face and said "Sit you weren't coming, eh?" To my embarrassment it wasn't my sister at all but a mere stranger who had a white pique hat with a little brim just like my sister's. So I embarrassingly apologized, my face blood red, I suppose, and offered to help her fix up and was thankful to find out she was a good-natured kid and we both laughed at what happened.

Train RCMP As Midwives

EDMONTON (BUP)—Twenty-one tough veterans of the RCMP are taking a first aid training course in Edmonton which includes instructions on how to help mothers during childbirth.

Dr. W. L. Falconer, director of the Charles Camell Indian Hospital, said the comprehensive one-week course is believed to be unique for the RCMP.

It includes training in obstetrics, dental work and how to give injections of penicillin and other life-saving drugs. The Mounties also will learn how to accurately report patients' symptoms so that doctors contacted by radio can diagnose ailments and prescribe the proper treatment.

The Mounties are learning how to cope with emergencies which may arise when they leave later this month for isolated RCMP posts in the Yukon, Northwest Territories and Arctic in the annual change-over of personnel.

Bring Clue From Wreck

EDMONTON (BUP) — RCAF ground searchers are returning from the Rocky Mountain "graveyard of lost planes" with a clue which might unravel the mystery of the wreckage of at least one plane.

Members of the six-man search party, under Flt. Lt. Don Blunderfield of Okotoks, were expected to arrive in Edmonton soon with part of instrument panel of a wrecked Stinson plane with which they hoped to establish its identity.

They discovered the wreckage last week, about 200 miles north of Edmonton, on the rugged Porcupine River. No bodies were found.

About 28 miles west of the crash, an RCAF reconnaissance plane found the wreckage of another plane. The ground party was unable to reach it because the Porcupine River was turbulent from melting mountain snow.

The second plane, believed a Cessna, was thought to have belonged to two hunters who were found wandering through dense bush and timberland in August, 1946. They were taken out by horse.

Canadian Taxes

Nobody likes to pay taxes. However, it is usually conceded that the income tax is the fairest of any taxes we have, and the Canadian income tax is kindest to those in the low income brackets.

In Canada, a married man with an income of $4,000 pays $380; in the United States, $538; and in the United Kingdom, $980. But a married man with two children and a salary of $50,000, would pay an income tax in Canada of $23,574, and the United States, $20,428.

There is one other advantage to Canadians, those with children receiving Family Allowances.

The Social Credit Members in Ottawa still claim that all taxes are unnecessary. However, people who have lived in Alberta for the last seventeen years would know that municipal and school taxes have trebled in this province under the Social Credit administration. Even taxes on gasoline have increased 4c a gallon since 1935.

How It Happened

Austin Dewar, Liberal Member for Qu'Appelle, who has been the subject of much discussion recently in the Press, gave an explanation in the House of Commons of his dealing with Harvey Lunam of the Lunam Construction Co.

He told how Lunam years ago lent him money to buy a hotel which he had later sold at a very substantial profit. In 1948, Lunam got into financial difficulties and he (Dewar) had given him his cheque to cover an overdraft. Lunam later paid him back in the same way by cheque. This method of financing was done on several occasions between 1948 and 1951, with no profit on either side. The term for such dealing is "kiting". It involves the rotating of cheques so as to take advantage of the bank's time lag in clearing them, and is, in effect, a short-term no-interest loan.

After making his explanation to Parliament, Mr. Dewar handed in his resignation and announced he will be a candidate in the next Federal election.

Sinkless Bathing Suit

A British business man said recently that a swim suit would soon appear on the American market which would be unsinkable. The secret is a so-called "breathing-fabric" which is sewed inside the swimming suit.

The British manufacturer, Mark Shaw, says the suit has been selling well in England and that it has recently been introduced in Canada. He has assigned the rights to an American company to manufacture similar suits for children. He describes the suit as having no effect on surface swimming, except to give the swimmer better speed, though he admits it makes underwater swimming difficult.

The suit supposedly will enable children to learn to swim in a short time and be valuable as a safety factor. The breathing fabric is actually tightly-woven cotton cloth, known as "Ventile," in the trade, originally developed by the British Government. A small, thin piece of this fabric is sewed inside the suit and provides the buoyancy.

We can't help but wonder if the modern Bikini contains enough sewing area to make the average young thing unsinkable. If Mr. Shaw's handkerchief-thin "breathing fabric" sewed inside these Bikinis can float a human indefinitely, as claimed, it is an outstanding development.

Famous Alberta Chief

By F. W. GERSHAW

Men of wide experience in dealing with many nations in different countries have said that "Crow-foot" was the most outstanding and interesting Indian they had ever met. He was more like a king than a chief as he walked on the plains with a majestic stride.

He always dressed in magnificent robes. They were of leather and the leather was tanned and treated until it was pure white in color and as rich and soft as ermine. There was always much beadwork on it and there was a gorgeous drawing of the sun worked on the front of it. The back and edges were decorated with many artistic designs. The chaps were beautifully decorated at the bottoms and fringed along the sides. His moccasins were always colorful. He wore a large white hat bound with large eagle feathers.

Royally clothed, as he always was, it was in himself that the kingly qualities were most apparent. His face was extraordinarily like the pictures we have of the classical features of Julius Caesar. He had a high forehead, a large, equiline nose and thin lips that were usually closed. He had keen, grey eyes and every feature was finely moulded. His every gesture was eloquent and his very presence suggested the Warrior, the Commander, and the Counsellor.

He was born, he lived and he died a wild Indian. He never tried to learn the English language and, when he lay on his deathbed, there were 27 of the Medicine Men of the Confederacy around him. He never despised or doubted their magic. When it was clear that his last moments had come and death was near, they ceased their long, continued howling drumming and fantastic motions. Death was left, as was the custom, to take its own. Then it was that one of the watchful, zealous priests slipped into the great tepee and administered the last sacrament to the great chief than in extremis.

● The memory of the appearance of this great man who was the greatest chieftain of his race never grew dim in the minds of those who knew him. Long after he was gone, they recall seeing him walking over the plains, crushing the wild grass with his gaudy moccasins, holding his head and shoulders erect, with his eyes on the distant hills.

No one ever questioned his right to be the supreme chief of the most powerful and warlike tribe of the north, as well as the acknowledged and respected leader of several allied tribes. He and his warriors ruled a strange empire in the ancient solitudes of the Canadian wilderness for many years.

When he talked, he made laws. When he spoke, his nation listened in silence. When he was dying, a great hush fell over the whole encampment. Even in death, his wish was law.

He had killed as many men as any Indian warrior of his time. He was a mighty buffalo slayer. He was torn in flesh, scarred in skin, limb and bone, but he did not stoop and his shadow never grew less.

It was only natural that, not only his horse but his gun, his blankets, his rich robes and plenty of food to last him to the "Happy Hunting Grounds" were buried with him.

How To Stay Young

Two doctors advise that vitamin B-6 may be the answer to hardening of the arteries and other aging processes of the body. Drs. James S. Ringhart and L. D. Greensburg, pathologists at the University of California Hospital, recently found evidence indicating that vitamin B-6 may hold much promise in slowing up the aging process.

Monkeys fed only chemical pill diets—when deprived of vitamin B-6—developed signs like those of hardening of the arteries. They seemed to grow old more quickly, and their hair turned gray.

It was found that if B-6 was added to their food soon enough, the aging apparently was checked. The question whether the hardening of human arteries may be connected with a deficiency of vitamin B-6 is being studied.

Meanwhile, beans and peas are said to be rich in vitamin, as well as meat. We suggest the women wait for confirmation and further research reports before reorientating their diets, although the evidence justifies some hope in the battle against growing old.

Men Of Valor

A woman enter a medical college! It simply was not done! But Elizabeth Blackwell did it. It was unwomanly, it was indecent! When finally she persuaded the Geneva Medical College in New York to admit her, she had to live down the suspicion that she must be a woman of bad character. She overheard the exclamation, "Brazen, I call it, and utterly shameless." But she stuck to it and received the first M.D. ever given to a woman.

END OF A MIRACLE

Never since Moses parted the waters of the Red Sea to provide dry land for the children of Israel to march across, was there such a miracle of road building as in this district.

A Mr. Cooper commanded his obedient servants and dry grades made race courses for speeding motorists oblivious of the swamp and muskeg on either side. Several years of drouth had kept the natural water levels below normal and so the Red Sea miracle of Moses was re-enacted year after year on the Lac la Biche to Spedden Road.

But now things are different. Consistent waterfall has shown up the one gravel road our local MLA has managed to wangle from his reluctant government to be nothing but an automobile trap. School buses are tied up. Sixty children or more are getting an unscheduled holiday, which has lasted for weeks and may last that many longer. The merchants of Rich Lake forget their differences and feuds, are huddled in conference.

Trustees at the local level, desperately inquire into the cost and use of helicopters, for school bus transit. Saddle horses, long forgotten in the limbo of ancient history are tied to hitch racks in front of stores and the post office.

The only exception to stranded motorists is an invention of Roy Makie. The motor has the sound of a dozen high tension wires, a sub-machine gun, but it goes. Four rubber wheels and a seat for the driver and one passenger. It is named a "Hellio-Popper." An emergency illness of one of the neighbors brought this machine into use.

But most of us have only ordinary cars and trucks. So not having passable roads we can't travel. The Social Credit miracle didn't repeat this year, and we can't go anywhere.

RATERAYER.

Rich Lake.

SPEAKING OF PARENTS

I disagree with people who favor children addressing their parents by their given names. I call my mother Mom, and have just learned the thrill of being called Mom by my young daughter. I suspect some women of wanting to be called by name because they do not want to feel old enough to be mothers, so they try to act like sisters to their children.

FARM JOB OPEN

For the information of Voicer F. A. S. who thinks we farmers never had it so good, the present trend of our farm economy is down. Come up north, mister, and spend the summer in a Peace River wheatfield. Then next winter try feeding the cattle and in the spring carry baby calves out of snow banks in zero weather. Then, if you still think the farm's for you, you can buy ours and settle down for the nice soft life we've been enjoying for twenty years.

LETTERS TO LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

I am a woman of sixty and glad of it. I am writing this letter because some of the women I know dread the idea of growing old. They haunt the beauty parlors and dye their hair and starve themselves because they feel that they will never be able to attract anyone when youth is gone.

How silly they are to worry about something they can't prevent and how much more popular and attractive they would be if they would spend their time doing interesting things and going places instead of putting wrinkles in their faces with worry.

I have reached the stage where I want to look my best but not because I am trying to attract a man. I want both men and women to think I am nice looking, well-groomed and nicely dressed but I don't care a bit about catching a husband. In fact, I am so pleasantly situated with friends and children that I am happy to be living as I am.

If I don't want to do things that people ask me to do, I can always plead my age to get out of doing them and yet I am young enough to do anything I wish.

None of my young friends mind my monopolizing their husbands at parties because they know I am romantically harmless. Which suits me just fine — because I can select my company without causing any side remarks or ugly looks.

So you see there are plenty of compensations to the girls that are getting along in years if they only have the sense to take advantage of them.

Please publish this so that some of my dumb friends may read it.
Widow — Tenn.

Answer:

Well, my dear, you do seem to have adjusted yourself to your situation very well indeed. It is a pity that more of your sisters cannot realize that a happy life is not caused by outward beauty as much as it is by an inner glow. The cheerful woman who is sympathetic and thoughtful and loving will find that those things remain when the golden hair and beautiful skin has begun to fade.

There are so many things in the world to enjoy that it is a shame that so many women have a one-track mind when it comes to estimating values.

Louisa

Strike Over, First Grain Vessel Leaves

VANCOUVER — The first cargo of grain to clear the Vancouver port since the 80-day grain workers strike was settled, left aboard the British vessel Trevider last week.

The 354,000 bushel cargo is destined for India, part of a 12,000,000 bushel order half-shipped when the strike started.

The Trevider was loaded at the Alberta Wheat Pool terminal elevator.

Trade Fair Exhibits Dunked In Harbor

TORONTO — Three tons of European exhibits destined for the Canadian International Trade Fair are drying out after a dunking in Toronto harbor. A huge crate containing baby grand pianos, oil paintings, and even Christmas cards, fell into the harbor when it was being unloaded. Then a power crane lifted the case out but slammed it against the pier. The bottom fell out and thousands of dollars of exhibits disappeared with a splash. A diver was called in to help retrieve them.

BRIGHT SAYINGS

The Editor will pay $1.00 for each child's saying printed. To qualify, item must be true, personal remarks of a child known to the writer. Address: Bright Sayings, P.O. Box 4368, South Edmonton.

Visiting his grandparents for dinner, the little grandson, three ears old, was mindful of repeated suggestions from his elders that he should eat his meat and potatoes before dessert. He watched me preparing the meal, and when I poured the peas into a fruit bowl he came up with this: "Don't put the fruit on till after 'cause if you do grandpa won't eat his meat and 'taters!'"

INITIAL $1.50 PRICE ANNOUNCED BY TRADE MINISTER HOWE

Ottawa Sets Basic $1.40 Per Bushel For No. 1 Northern Effective July 31

OTTAWA—Trade Minister C. D. Howe has announced an initial price of $1.40 per bushel for No. 1 Northern wheat for the crop year starting July 31 quality wheat is unchanged from the 1952-53 crop year. But Howe announced that a special initial price of $1.50 per bushel would be paid during the coming crop year for Durum wheat to encourage production of this type.

Amount Unchanged

Last year western farmers received the same initial price for Durum they got for No. 1 Northern.

Howe told the Commons it may be possible to increase the $1.40 price for Northern and the $1.50 price for Durum before the end of July. By that time he said, the government would have a better idea of conditions for the coming year.

today are not going to sell them at fire sale prices," he told Commons.

Howe said on these grounds he had no hesitation in announcing an initial price.

The trade minister said there was no reason why initial payments for barley should be increased. He pointed out, however, that Canada still has a substantial barley surplus.

"The worst that can happen with oats is that we may have to ration deliveries in step with sales," he said. "The crop of oats last year was tremendous but the market was not particularly brisk."

Alberta Hogs Sold In Portland

PORTLAND, Ore. — The first Canadian hogs since 1941 were sold on the North Portland livestock market Thursday.

The short carload from Calgary brought $22 and $23.50 a hundred-weight for 427 and 557-pound sows. The hogs were shipped here as a result of the short supply and high prices.

Mother and Daughter Banquet Enjoyed

The Masonic Hall was the setting, on Friday, May 15, for the annual Mother and Daughter banquet, which is held every year in connection with the CGIT. The hall was beautifully decorated with blue and white streamers and the tables arranged in the form of a horseshoe to accommodate all the guests. Beautiful rose corsages were laid by the plates of the mothers and other honored guests and were pinned on mothers by their daughters as soon as they were seated.

Mrs. Charney, CGIT leader of many years' standing, sounded the whistle that had been used many times in previous years in connection with CGIT work, and in a few well chosen words welcomed the guests. A toast to the Queen was made by Sharon Sharp, which was responded to with the singing of the National Anthem.

A very delicious banquet was enjoyed, which was served by former CGIT graduates, Joyce Kotow, Edna Jensen, Donna McNaughton and Barbara Hills.

After the banquet, led by the Misses McNaughton and Porteous, a sing-song was greatly enjoyed. Hope." A very pretty ceremonial. A toast to the church was proposed by Rosalyn Hills, to which Mrs. Dorey suitably responded, and in so doing commended Mrs. Charney for her untiring and unselfish efforts as Sunday school superintendent.

She also stated that, for its attendance, Crossfield United Church was the best organized in Christian work movements that had been her pleasure to witness. "All these Christian efforts," she stated, "would assist its growth in stature, strength, efficiency and in the love of God."

Ellen McDonald favored those present with two piano solos. Julie Scotchless made a beautiful toast to the mothers which brought a response from Mrs. B. Stillings. Helen Edgar sang a very pretty number, and Pat Helzer and Beverly Stillings the duet "Whispering

Mrs. Charney asked each girl desirous of camping to get her name in early to avoid disappointment. She stated that there was a fund created for any girl who found that she was in financial difficulties.

Norma Borbridge gave a pleasing piano solo and Mrs. Amery, who has been interested in youth work for many years, gave a wonderful resume of the CGIT and its promise for the future. She had with her a collection of pictures of CGIT camps, and her message was full of encouragement for the

Some Allergic To Vitamin Bread

OTTAWA (CP)—A few cases of allergy are believed to have broken out from eating the new vitamin-enriched bread that went on the market last Feb. 1. Dr. L. B. Pett, chief of the health department's nutrition division, said Thursday.

Dr. Pett said in an interview that he has heard of about 10 persons allergic to the bread. There were no serious ailments, and the branch was not investigating.

He said it appeared the cases were those of persons allergic to the B vitamins, three of which go into the enriched flour in the bread. These vitamins, generally, induced growth and develop bodily energy from foods.

The Canadian gold mining industry employs 22,000 persons.

COVERED BY THE
FORD MOTOR COMPANY

The best way to measure Ford's dollar-for-dollar value is to compare it feature-for-feature with other cars that cost as much or more. We think you'll be surprised at what you'll find. For example, you'll discover that Ford's Strato-Star 110-Hp. V-8 engine is the kind of engine you've always associated with the most expensive cars... that it delivers the kind of power and smoothness you never hoped to find in a car that's priced as low as Ford. When you try out Ford's relaxing "Wonder Ride" you'll sense that "big car" feeling that's so satisfying to a driver. When you take into account Ford's choice of Fordomatic*, Overdrive* or Synchro-Silent transmission—and realize how many attractive extra features Ford includes... well, then you'll understand why more and more motorists are making Ford their new first choice!
